Well I will say this. I want someone who takes care of their body -lives an active lifestyle -seeing they don't have a critical health condition preventing them from doing so. That's what I look for in a partner which from I recall your array if activities really caught my eyes haha. Really good on you for that. I'd be totally down to learn about/try then out and give them a go sometime. So shallow, no I'm quite the opposite from my

Btw I love how you are so confident and know your worth. As for phone etiquette, please excuse me, currently I seem to be a bit of a barbarian at best. Haha and yes I assume because of the somewhat confrontational vibe I have been getting via text. But yeah I like you so far and I'll leave it at that. If I'm too young for you I understand but I'm ready and open to go long term in the upcoming future. The only thing at my age that I worry about are my finances lacking being yours. Apart from that I'm quite confident in many other aspects.

People like you are hard to come by...easy to talk to and well spoken... Keep ME in mind :) I'm not the best but I like to think I'm better than the average man when it comes to morale and chasing tail as they call it.

So basically what I'm saying is I don't want to let go of this. If it naturally stalls I'm okay with that. It takes two for any quality relationship to work from my understanding and 100percent see that with my parents. They are so open with one another.. Sure they have their quarrels but yeah I'm gonna stop here because I sound like I'm some grandpa right now Haha. Old soul=me I guess. Should have grown up in a different time.
@your most recent post that is more so used to show my quality relationship seeking self over short lived pleasure way of thinking. Bad example I assume but that was most fresh in my mind at the time

Yeah I did. I was like what is this a control freak or? But then I found out oh no its just you being serious and me trying to see if it was a test - well I'm here to say I'm in it for the long haul but I need 1 thing promised if we make it to October I will want you to take me out to dinner for my efforts Haha :-). Not going to lie I was up until 4am last night researching this possible situation and many people feel that the ultimate answer is if it works it works if it doesn't then that happens in life. I like the Internet for that reason as it just confirmed my beliefs =)

Oh was this for how I abruptly ended the call last night? That's why I favor in person meetings. I feel this phone thing is still new but I'm a fast learner. That was my first call and yeah I didn't think it was that big of a deal. We could always talk again. If it was too abruptly ended I'm sorry. I'll never hang up first now unless my battery dies (was at 3percent when we finished last night lol).Phone etiquette is /will be much better now.

I'm not sure why you are upset. Honestly texting it just trouble it seems. I was honestly so happy after speaking with you. I think it would be best to keep it on a speech only basis. If you feel that way then you're mind is made up making these unwarranted accusations against me. I'm a stand up guy. I have goals. I don't need negative people telling me I'm not good. I've had enough of that in my first 15 years of life. Legit tearing up now. I guess that proves I really did get offended over text. Well I still want to thank you though I haven't cried since I can remember. Oddly it Feels good.

Also I don't appreciate how condescending you seem over text while on the phone you seem perfectly normal. I think me saying the trigger word 'bored' lead to all this but quite honestly I don't care. I've relieved myself and understand that it's a numbers game and eventually even if I don't get you I know that the qualities I find in you I could find in other women too. It might take me a little longer but I'm persistent and patient as fuck(with my track record) and at the very least you have taught me some much needed etiquette+thanks . Last long text you'll be reading from me if that's the choice. I like you. I don't like whoever is texting me though. They've been quite offsetting. Give the phone back to Angel thanks
